

1. How many chemicals were the scientists searching for?
2. What do we know about where the people did NOT get it from?
3. How many toxins were detected in total?
4. How many of the chemicals were banned over 30 years ago?
5. Who were the subjects of the blood test?
6. What kinds of pathogens does the placenta successfully filter out?
7. List five (5) of the known consequences of being exposed to these substances. (and how many chemicals?)
 - a. 1
 - b. 2
 - c. 3
 - d. 4
 - e. 5
8. Why do these numbers add up to greater than 250?
9. What is the definition of: ppm and ppb
10. List three examples of drugs which clearly, drastically change your body's physiology at low levels? (and at what levels are they 'effective at')